MIND, MATTER, MONEY, BEAUTY.—Webster's Quarto Dictionary, as now published, has cost more intellectual labor, more money in its "getting up," and contains more matter, and a larger number of beautiful engravings, than any single volume ever before published for popular use in this or any other country. Bell & Daldy, the new publishers of Bohn's libraries, are the London publishers of this magnificent volume.

BEST BOOK FOR EVERYBODY.—The new illustrated edition of Webster's Dictionary, containing three thousand engravings, is the best book for everybody, that the press has produced in the present century, and should be regarded as indispensable to the well-regulated home, reading-room, library, and place of business. —San Francisco Golden Era.

BISHOPS OF THE M. E. CHURCH.

The demand for the new steel engraving of the BISHOPS OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, recently issued by the subscribers, is ample evidence of how much such a picture is desired, and how heartily this beautiful work of art meets the approval of the Methodist public. Without any effort in the way of advertising, over two thousand copies have already been sold.

The Picture was engraved by Mr. J. C. BUTTRE, of New York, and is pronounced by all who have seen it a perfect success. The number of heads being nine, they make a perfect oval group. The venerable and portly form of Bishop Morris occupies the centre, and around him his colleagues are arranged in the order of their official seniority. All know how rare a thing it is for the engraver to produce a single satisfactory likeness, how much more difficult, in a group of nine, for the artist to avoid the general sameness, and often tameness, observable in such pictures, and to give the characteristic individuality of each as happily and perfectly as in a single successful likeness! The whole is surrounded and interwoven by an elegant and significant border, designed by Mr. C. A. Barry, of Boston; the Christian and National enblems being tastefully blended.

The size of the plate is fourteen by eighteen inches, printed on a sheet seventeen by twenty-one inches.

The retail price is $1.50; to ministers and agents a liberal discount.

Any number of copies may be safely sent by mail on a roller. Orders may be sent to either of the publishers.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

EDUCATION.

THERE are increasing demands in our Church for a high and liberal Christian culture. We recognize therein indication of a healthful and vigorous development, and the promise of a still wider influence and usefulness.

Notwithstanding the drafts made by the war upon the ranks from which our Seminaries and Colleges are filled, notwithstanding the greatly augmented expense incurred in pursuing a course of study, yet we have reason for rejoicing that the institutions of learning under the patronage of our Conference have been so well sustained, and that our general educational prosperity compares so favorably with its former self.

The Report of the Wesleyan University ought to encourage and at the same time to stimulate the members of this Conference to persistent effort in securing the highest efficiency to this eldest-born of our colleges.

The year past has been distinguished for good order, harmony, and success in the general management of the interests of the University. The number of her students is one hundred and thirteen, of whom ninety-eight are professedly pious, and thirty-eight are licensed preachers.

The Report earnestly calls the attention of this Conference to the completion of the University Library Fund of $25,000. A generous patron offers to erect a library-building at a cost of $25,000, as soon as the fund is collected.

The Report of the M. G. Biblical Institute indicates the usual degree of prosperity. Fifty-one young men, within the year, have been under instruction. Nearly one-half of them have been engaged on Sabbath in supplying pulpits in destitute places.

God has sanctioned these labors, and much good has been done in the name of the Holy Child Jesus. The arrearages in the Professors' salaries, as referred to in the Treasurer's Report, call for the prompt action of this Conference.

It is exceedingly desirable that the young men who are expecting to enter our ministry should seek the advantages to be found in our collegiate and theological institutions; and we would especially urge that thoroughness be insisted on in the examinations of Conference undergraduates, in the studies prescribed by the Board of Bishops.

We regard the New-England Education Society as having special claims upon our sympathies and hearty co-operation, and urge that all sums apportioned be fully raised.

We suggest the adoption of the Society's recommendation, that the New-Hampshire Conference raise the coming year, the sum of $300, and that said sum be apportioned to the several districts and stations.

The following are nominated as visitors to our several institutions of learning: —

Biblical Institute. — Rev. Jas. Thurston, Rev. Wm. H. Jones, Rev. Chas. Young, Rev. C. M. Dinsmore, Rev. S. Quimby, Rev. H. Lummis.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE CONFERENCE SEMINARY AND FEMALE COLLEGE.

Twenty years ago the New-Hampshire Conference Seminary was established at Sanbornton Bridge, in the town of Northfield, by the action of this Conference.

The school opened in Angust, 1845, in a two-story brick building, seventy feet by forty feet, which had been erected and presented to the Conference for that purpose, by the citizens of Sanbornton and Northfield.

After eleven years, the above-named building, modest in its proportions, and always inadequate in its accommodations, gave place to another which afforded ample accommodations, and which was provided at an expense of about $25,000. In November, 1862, just as we were about lifting the last burden of debt which rested upon the Institution, this beautiful edifice was destroyed by fire.

The Trustees, and the friends of education within the bounds of the Conference, though afflicted, were not discouraged, but determined that the school should go on, and immediately commenced the enterprise of rebuilding. Ten thousand dollars, insurance money, were available, with which to commence the work. More than $10,000 have since been added; so that, to-day, we have property worth, it is estimated, $27,500, on which we have insurance, for five years, of $17,500. We have about seven acres of land, affording one of the most beautiful locations for such an Institution that can be found in New England. On this land we have built and furnished an academic building, seventy-five by forty-five feet, three stories high, containing eleven rooms, suitable for lecture and recitation purposes, beside a spacious and beautiful hall on the third floor, covering the whole area.

We have also, standing forty feet west of the Seminary proper, a building erected and furnished for the accommodation of young ladies, containing twenty-seven rooms, each large enough to accommodate two persons, together with dining-hall, kitchen, and such culinary appurtenances as are needful in a good boarding-school.

We have also laid the foundation of another building, forty feet east of the main edifice, to be occupied by young gentlemen, and to contain sixteen rooms, equal to the accommodation of thirty-two persons. The third story of this building is to contain two beautiful halls for the use of the two literary societies of the school, the "V. A. S." and "U. P.," so called, with ample accommodations for library and ante-rooms.

We have more than $2,000 of subscriptions, unpaid, over and above all liabilities, toward meeting the expenses of erecting the third and last building needful to round out our enterprise, and furnish us, as far as buildings are concerned, all we shall probably need for a quarter of a century for the accommodation of our school. And, beside this, twenty-five gentlemen, most of them Trustees, have assumed the responsibility of $2,000 more, which will secure the erection of the walls, putting on of the roof, and putting in the windows of the building yet to be erected.

Such are our circumstances! And now a word concerning our necessities.

We need and must have $2,500 more, with which to finish the gentleman's boarding-house.

The question for this Conference to consider is, how can this amount of money be raised?

The Committee recommend the following plan as most feasible and equal in their opinion.

Let each preacher assume the payment of an equitable proportion of $2,500; which proportion shall be determined by a committee of five, appointed by the Conference, including the Presiding Elders.

Then let the the Conference order each and every pastor, on the first Sabbath of June, to lay before his congregation the circumstances and necessities of the Institution, and cause to be taken a collection and subscription for this object, and make such further efforts among his people, during the following week, as are necessary, so as to forward the amount for which he is obligated, before or on the twentieth of June, to Rev. W. D. Cass, Treasurer, Sanbornton Bridge, N. H.

The Committee appointed to make an equitable apportionment of the $2,500, ordered by the Conference to be raised for the completion of the Seminary buildings, and for which the Preachers are to assume the responsibility of payment, SLAVERY.

God is sublimely answering the question which was so long dubiously asked, — "What shall be done for the extirpation of slavery?" The slave-owners, grown insolent and bold by the concessions and compromises of the Church, he has allowed to plunge into a mad rebellion, which has involved them and their peculiar institution in an overthrow, entire and conspicuous as the fall of Pharaoh and his host. President Lincoln's emancipation proclamation was one stamp of almighty justice on the neck of oppression; the constitutional amendment of congress is another; and the fierce blows of our gallant army on rebellion have hewn its carcass to pieces. Now, let it be drawn forth without funeral, to rot in the last ditch, with the wreck of Confederacy. Our duty is now to take its 4,000,000 victims in their ignorance and imbecility, raise them to the prerogatives and rights of equal citizenship with all men, and to the blessed opportunities and fellowship of the Church of God, and to obliterate all those invidious distinctions and disabilities which slavery has tried to fasten on an injured race. Therefore

Resolved, That the nation hails with joy the appointment of Salmon P. Chase to be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

WHEREAS we regard the Sunday school one of the most important and powerful instrumentalities within our reach for effecting the moral renovation of society, and affording superior advantages for instructing the youth in the doctrines and precepts of the Bible; and, whereas, it presents the choicest field from which the minister may gather laborers and watchmen for the future service of the Church. Therefore Resolved, 1st, That we will endeavor to carry out the requirements of the Discipline by introducing the Catechism, and organizing our Sunday schools into Missionary Societies.

2. Resolved, That we should exclude from our Sunday-school libraries all books that are not moral or religious in their character.

3. Resolved, That we make an effort to secure the attendance and influence of parents in our schools, and, as far as practicable, induce them to become teachers.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

Almost ninety-nine years have passed since God in his great goodness established the M. E. Church in this country. Her efforts to spread scriptural holiness over these lands have been crowned with unparalleled success. She numbers to-day, despite external persecutions and internal feuds, fifty-nine Annual Conferences; a ministry, travelling and local, of fifteen thousand; and a membership of almost a million. During the century, there have been erected for the denomination between nine and ten thousand houses of worship, at a cost of $23,000,000. She has in operation one hundred institutions of learning, educating yearly twenty-five thousand persons. Her annual contributions for missions, Sunday schools, Bibles, and tracts, are now over six hundred thousand dollars. Therefore

Resolved, That it is our duty, and we should esteem it a privilege, at our approaching Centennial Celebration, to erect some enduring monument of God's goodness to us, and of our gratitude to him.

Resolved, That we most heartily approve the action of our late General Conference in raising a Committee to have this matter in consideration, and, also, the action of that Committee, so far as it relates to mission buildings, the Irish Connectional Fund, and Biblical Education.

Resolved, That it is our special duty as a Conference to take advantage of this interesting period in our history to endow our N. H. Conference Seminary and Female College.

Resolved, That we raise a Committee of ten, whose duty it shall be to collect facts relating to this subject, and report at the next session of our Conference.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

WHEREAS the recent glorious victories of our armies have unexpectedly opened a vast and peculiarly interesting field for Christian effort, that loudly calls for occupancy by the Methodist Episcopal Church;

Resolved, That those having charge of the missionary work in that territory are hereby respectfully requested to select such men of ability and character to occupy that field, gather the scattered flocks, and organize churches and conferences, as shall carry into practice the present provisions of our Discipline, which deprecate invidious distinctions between Christians because of their color.

Resolved, That, inasmuch as the present appropriation of money by the Missionary Society is not sufficient to carry into effect the above request, and inasmuch as no money can be diverted from other fields of missionary effort without serious detriment to the work, we pledge our hearty support to any measures devised by the proper authorities, for the collection of funds, additional to the present missionary appropriation, for the carrying-out of the above object.

PARSONAGES.

The importance of well-furnished parsonages to the comfort and success of the itinerant can hardly be overvalued; and yet it appears from our returns for 1864, that, of one hundred and seven charges in the N. H. Conference, but forty-eight are furnished with parsonages; leaving fifty-nine to be rented. Several of our parsonages, moreover, are not furnished with furniture.

Resolved, That our Presiding Elders and Preachers are requested to use vigorous efforts during the ensuing conference year to supply with heavy furniture all our parsonages now unsupplied, and to build or purchase and furnish houses where we have none; and, when this cannot be done, to secure by rent for some years a suitable house as a parsonage.

LAY DELEGATION.

1. Resolved, That we hereby re-affirm our former action in favor of the principle of Lay Representation in the General Conference.
2. Resolved, That we heartily approve the action of the last General Conference on that subject.

THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

We are permitted to turn from the contemplation of war to that of peace. For four years the true men of the country have been called upon, by every sentiment of patriotism and piety, to sustain a vigorous prosecution of the war. Now may we sustain as vigorous a prosecution of peace. We congratulate the country on the present aspect of affairs, as being greatly improved during the year. The Rebellion, which for four years has filled the land with mourning and brought sorrow to every household, seems to have received its death-wound.

We think we more than ever see the hand of God in the affairs of the nation. The events of the four years past are enough, in difficulty and magnitude, in the common course of events to fill up to the brim fourscore years. Who would not feel satisfied if such a system of slavery as that of the South, should be ground out and worn away so that there should be no more remembrance of it among men or nations, in three or even four generations? Men say, "The mill of God grinds slow but fine;" but in this case it has ground both fast and fine. We must not be too sanguine. We deal with a subtle foe. The conflict of ideas, which brought on a clash of arms, is not yet ended. Some men are more easily convinced by blows than by logic. The blows have been given. The impression is made. The ideas are shaken up. And now comes the adjustment of them. And patriots and christians must see to it, that in this adjustment, which must soon take place, there be left no chance of future conflict in our country, or, so far as we are concerned, in the world.

The ideas of the whole country have been greatly changed. We have learned many things about each other which we ought to have known before. No one section of the country is fitted to exist in national character alone. The different parts of the country are made for each other. We have had a great mixing of the people of different sections. "As iron sharpeneth iron so the face of a man his friend." The sectionalism so much talked of and so much felt throughout the land — north, south, east, west, though most rankly and bitterly in the south — will, we trust be greatly modified, if not entirely obliterated; and the people shall mingle in a more perfect union. And this mixing and mingling shall not only make the Government stronger than ever, and give us a proud and enviable pre-eminence among the nations of the earth, but it will sharpen and stimulate and quicken and elevate all sections and classes of the people. These things all point to a high destiny for our country. The Government has nobly withstood a terrible strain and shock, such as no other nation could. We shall henceforth feel that she is equal to any pressure. She will be more vigilant and therefore more terrible hereafter.

Resolved, 1. That we are filled with devout gratitude to Almighty God, who now kindly grants unto us the dawning of peace; and we fervently pray that it may speedily brighten into perfect day.

Resolved, 2. That we congratulate the Government, the army and navy, — the arms of our strength, — the officers and soldiers, black and white, the citizens of these United States generally, and the rest of mankind, on the present happy aspect of affairs; and we pray that peace may be sure and perpetual, and that the land may speedily become the habitation of holiness.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

WHEREAS the Word of God most explicitly teaches that the laborer is worthy of his hire, and that they that preach the gospel should live of the gospel, therefore, —

Resolved, That the high prices of living demand a corresponding advance in the preacher's claims.

Resolved, That the partial increase of estimates or donations over and above the salary evinces on the part of our people a growing appreciation of the importance of giving to our preachers a more adequate support.

Resolved, That more prompt and efficient measures are needed in soliciting for the support of the gospel, and that the funds raised be paid in monthly or at least quarterly instalments, and, as far as possible, in advance.

Resolved, That while we do not recognize the validity of "louder calls," we fear that the limited support hitherto given to our preachers may account for the numerous "transfers" to other Conferences.

Resolved, That the great demand for talented and popular ministers can be met only on the basis of a compensation more adequate to the increasing wants of the times.

Resolved, That more attention should be given to the subject of ministerial support, in order to secure greater efficiency in the pulpit, and raise up preachers for the work that shall be "workmen that need not to be ashamed," competent and faithful pastors of our churches, to feed the flocks over which the Holy Ghost hath made them overseers.

BIBLE CAUSE.

WHEREAS the Bible is the source of all correct views of God, ourselves, our duties, and our destinies; the fountain of all moral purity; the promoter of social happiness; the guardian of civil and religious liberty; the basis of all national greatness, prosperity, and permanence; the strongest barrier to the spread of infidel principles; the only giver of peace and consolation in the dying hour, and, whereas, nothing but the Bible can educate the hearts and reform the manners of men, assimilate all the heterogeneous elements in our land, and make and preserve us one people, therefore Resolved, 1. That, so far as time and opportunity will permit, we will search out the Bible destitution in our respective charges, and aid in circulating the Word of God among our people.

Resolved, 2. That, whenever practicable, we will co-operate with the ministers of other religious denominations in sustaining the Annual Meetings of our County Bible Societies, and also the Annual Meeting of the N. H. Bible Society, held at Concord, in June, and labor to awaken a deeper and wider interest in the Bible cause.

Resolved, 3. That, as the extensive fields now opening for Bible distribution in the southern section of our own country and in foreign lands require the American Bible Society to put forth more vigorous efforts to supply the demand, we pledge ourselves to renewed and increased faithfulness in presenting its claims to our congregations.

Resolved, 4. That, as the American Bible Society is now entering upon the great work of publishing the Bible in the Arabic tongue for those of the Mahometan faith, we pledge them our co-operation in the prosecution of their work.

TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee, deeply impressed with the importance of the cause, as connected with the highest interests of families, the nation, and the Church of God, beg leave to present the following Report: —

WHEREAS many of our public men in high official stations use intoxicating drinks to their own disgrace, bringing reproach and great injury to the nation,

WHEREAS intemperance is fearfully increasing in our large towns, and spreading in the country;

WHEREAS our young men, the hope of the Church and Nation, are exposed to this foe, more to be dreaded than Confederate armies, and some of them having already formed alliance with the enemy, and others will probably return from the army under his power;

WHEREAS the use of cider and domestic wines as a beverage, forming intemperate habits, is increasingly prevalent among us; and

WHEREAS legal suasion cannot conquer this many-headed monster without moral: therefore Resolved, 1. That we will return to first principles, abide by, and employ them, as long as God renders them successful.

Resolved, 2. We will lecture, or procure lectures, on this subject, in all our congregations.

Resolved, 3. We will circulate the Pledge, and form societies, and use all laudable means to abate this evil, and save our fellow-men from drunkards' graves.

TOBACCO.

Resolved, 1. That we will, by precept and example, discourage its use both in the ministry and membership; and especially that we will endeavor to preserve our youth from becoming slaves to this pernicious habit.

Resolved, 2. That we still deem it inexpedient for the Conference to admit to membership therein any person who is addicted to the habitual use of tobacco.

THE PRESCOTT CABINET.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are due to William Prescott, M. D., to whose munificence we are indebted for the Prescott Cabinet at our seminary of learning, — one of the most extensive and valuable in the State; and also for the great interest he continues to feel in behalf of our Institution and its Cabinet, as shown by his communication to this Conference at the present session.

Resolved, That, in accordance with the wishes and suggestions of Dr. Prescott, we will each do all in our power to make additions to the Prescott Cabinet; and to aid us in this work we hereby incorporate, as a part of this Report, so much of the communication of Dr. Prescott as indicates the places where, within our State, valuable minerals are to be found.

PERIODICALS OF THE M. E. CHURCH.

METHODIST QUARTERLY REVIEW. D. D. Whedon, D.D., Editor.....$2.50

The aim of the Review is to keep its readers abreast with the substantial literature of the age, both within and without the pale of Methodism. The department of book-notices is very carefully attended to. Each number contains one hundred and seventy-six pages, octavo.

LADIES' REPOSITORY. I. W. Wiley, D.D., Editor. Published monthly. 64 pages, royal 8vo. $3.50 per annum.

Decidedly the best Ladies' Magazine in the Union. Its articles are well written, and always of a sound, healthy character. Each number is adorned with two engravings of the first quality, unequalled, indeed, by those of any similar publication. It deserves, and may well claim, the title of "Queen of the monthlies."

SUNDAY-SCHOOL ADVOCATE. Rev. Daniel Wise, D.D., Editor. 40 cents per annum; five copies or more sent to one address, 30 cents per year.

The Sunday-School Advocate is considered the best paper of its kind, now in its 24th volume. Over two hundred and fifty thousand of the little messengers of truth are sent forth semi-monthly from our press.

THE GOOD NEWS. Edited by Rev. Dr. Wise. Published monthly. 10 copies, $1.50 per year; any larger number at the same rate.

This is not a child's paper, but is especially adapted to general circulation, and is much used as a substitute for Tracts. Beautifully illustrated.

THE MISSIONARY ADVOCATE. Published monthly, and is designed to keep our people well informed of all our missionary operations, both foreign and domestic. 25 cents per year; 8 copies, $1; 45 copies, $5.00.

All our Churches are entitled to a number of gratuitous copies, where the usual collection is taken for Missions.

ZION'S HERALD. Published at 11 Cornhill, Boston. F. Rand, Agent; N. E. Cobleigh, D.D., Editor. Published weekly. $2.50 per annum. You can begin any time. Every Methodist in New England needs it.

CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE AND JOURNAL. D. Curry, D.D., Editor. $3.00 per annum.

Published weekly at New York. Its present circulation is very large. Try it, reader, six months at least.

HISTORY OF THE M. E. CHURCH. The first two volumes of Dr. Stevens's "History of the M. E. Church" are now ready. They can but be interesting to all who love to trace the peculiar providence of God as connected with spiritual religion. Price per volume, $1.75.

MEDITATIONS ON THE ESSENCE OF CHRISTIANITY, AND ON THE RELIGIOUS QUESTIONS OF THE DAY. By M. GUIZOT. Translated from the French under the superintendence of the author: with a learned and most interesting note of nine pages, by Dr. Tayler Lewis, of Union College, excepting to the author's views on verbal inspiration.

This most able and timely work is now ready. It is every way worthy its distinguished author and the age. Of all the replies we have seen to modern infidelity in its various developments, this is the best. Its argument is simple, common-sense, and level with the capacity of ordinary readers, and yet it is powerful and convincing. It should be sent broadcast through the country wherever the sentiments of Renan, Parker, Colenso, & Co., have found utterance.

A great book by a distinguished author. Price $1.75.

A MEMOIR OF THE

OF

BY FRANCIS WAYLAND.

16mo. Cloth. Price $1.00.

CONTENTS: Early Life until his Settlement at Kilmany; Ministry at Kilmany; Dr. Chalmers at Glasgow; His Eloquence; Parochial Labors in the Tron Church; Labors at St. Johns; Christian Labors at St. Andrew; Residence at Edinburgh; Church Extension; Origin and Establishment of the Free Church; Labors at the West Port; Personal Character; Death; Conclusion.

☞ This work is not strictly a LIFE of Dr. Chalmers, but a Memoir of that particular phase of his character which was displayed in his Parochial and Philanthropic labors, and is designed specially to aid by his precepts, example, and general principles of action, both ministers and private Christians who are with him laboring to promote the best interests of man.

THE MEMORIAL HOUR; Or, THE LORD'S SUPPER IN ITS RELATION TO DOCTRINE AND LIFE. By Jeremiah Chaplin, D.D., author of "Evening of Life," etc. 16mo. Cloth. Price $1.25.

The design of this work is strictly devotional — to deepen in the hearts of its readers, with the divine blessing, a sense of the value of the Memorial Ordinance, and thus to rescue this precious rite from that formal and superstitious observance on the one hand and that careless and irreverent observance on the other, which are too common.

A BOOK FOR THE TIMES!

SATAN'S DEVICES,

AND THE

BELIEVER'S VICTORY.

By REV. WILLIAM L. PARSONS, A.M., Pastor of the Congregational Church, Mattapoisett, Mass. 12mo. Price $1.50.

This is an original book. It is not the compilation of other men's thoughts, but the discussion of a large and important subject of the Scriptures in many of its parts, by a mind that has ranged through the whole field, and has penetrated beyond facts to principles, and philosophically elucidated principles to the common apprehensions of men and confirmed them by the facts of Christian experiences.

Notice of the Work from Prof. W. S. Tyler, Amherst College, Mass.

"I have read the book with great interest, and what is better, with real profit. I hardly know which I admire most, the logical clearness and discrimination, the definiteness and vividness of the thought, the conciseness and perspicuity of the language, the familiar knowledge and happy application of the Scriptures, the practical wisdom and good sense, or the wide and deep pastoral and Christian experience by which it is distinguished. It was manifestly written, not out of the reason and the imagination, merely, but out of the heart and the life — not merely to make a book, but to meet a felt want and accomplish an important object. And in the skill with which it meets the wants of the Church, and the necessities of men's souls in these times, lies its wisdom and its power. May the Head of the Church and the Saviour of men use it, as I doubt not he will, to accomplish a great and good work in the sanctification and salvation of multitudes.'

Important Missionary Work!

THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS:

THEIR PROGRESS AND CONDITION UNDER MISSIONARY LABORS. By Rufus Anderson, D. D., Foreign Secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. With Maps, Illustrations, etc. Royal 12mo. Cloth. Price $2.25.

This noble volume by Dr. Anderson has been prepared after the experience of a forty-years' correspondence with the missionaries sent out by the "American Board," and the information obtained by a recent sojourn of four months upon the Islands, during which time he was permitted to visit almost every portion of the country, mingling with the people in their public assemblies, their social and domestic circles, witnessing their customs, habits, their civil and religious institutions, commercial enterprise, etc. It is a work of no ordinary interest and importance.

AMERICAN ORGANS.

Manufactory, Tremont St., opp. Waltham St., Boston, Mass.

☞ The most perfect and beautiful instrument in the world, for the American Home Circle! The American Organ makes Home Attractive, and refines and elevates the minds of all. Beautiful in its appearance and effects.

AMERICAN ORGANS, Nos. 12 and 27, in Rosewood or Black Walnut Cases. With Two Banks of Keys, Four Stops, and Tremolo.

WITH THE MOST PERFECT CONFIDENCE, we call the attention of the public to the AMERICAN ORGAN as an instrument long desired in the Family Circle, and with our patent improvements is adapted to all kinds of Music, more especially to Sacred Music, with its sustained tones and harmonies, so much desired and sought for in American homes.

The AMERICAN ORGANS are superior to all other instruments of the kind in many important particulars. They are superior in their greater fullness and completeness of tone, volume, and power. They are superior in expression, quickness of action, and elasticity of touch, rendering them perfect in rapid movements.

They are superior in quality and beauty of tone, and when controlled by the DOUBLE BELLOWS and BLOW PEDALS, KNEE SWELL, etc., the most charming effects can be produced, from the softest whisper of the Æolian harp to the full volume and power of the Church Organ — thus enabling the performer to give expressions not to be found in any other instrument

The TREMOLO STOP has a pleasing and beautiful variety, sympathetic in quality, appealing to the tender emotions of the soul, producing effects the most charming and soothing; it is universally admired and appreciated. The KNEE SWELL gives the performer full control of the tone, enabling him to graduate from the Pianissimo to the Fortissimo at pleasure, and combines the effect of the Expression Stop of the French Organ in the AMERICAN ORGAN, more perfectly and easily managed.

With all these combinations and improvements of Double Bellows, Pedals, and Swell, the AMERICAN ORGAN excels in expression, variety and power, and has all the quality and capacity of a full Orchestra, and in the hands of a master is capable of the most complete orchestral effects.

The AMERICAN ORGANS are superior in mechanical finish of the action and interior portions of the musical parts. The valves are of material expressly prepared to avoid all sticking, cracking, or decomposition, and thus durable and will be always in order. The keys, reeds, etc., are perfect in their finish, and this gives the quickness and sprightliness of tone, brilliancy, etc., equal in every respect to the "percussion stop" of the French Organs, but not like them in getting out of order. The AMERICAN ORGANS are by far the most beautiful in exterior finish, forming a handsome piece of furniture for the Parlor, Boudoir, or Sitting-room, occupying but little space, and perfect and complete in every particular. The Rosewood Cases are varnished and polished in the highest style of art. The Oak and Walnut Cases are finished in oil.

For Churches, Lecture Rooms, Lodges, etc., the AMERICAN ORGAN is especially adapted for its beauty of style, its excellence, variety, volume, and strength of tone.
